

Who I Am In Christ

The death, resurrection, and ascension of Jesus Christ is not just a spiritual “fix” to save us from guilt or the eternal consequence of sin. Jesus delivers us from actual sin and depravity now. He reestablishes our relationship with God, restores the image of God in us, and reorients our lives around the Kingdom of God. This is the reason for our salvation! In Christ, we have new life and the ability to become what we were created to be – children of God who bear His image and are citizens and ambassadors of His Kingdom.

What God wants us to do flows from who we are in Christ now, and there’s no ambiguity in the Scriptures regarding our new identity:

We are God’s workmanship created in Christ Jesus to do good works	Ephesians 2:10
We are reconciled to God and ministers of reconciliation	2 Corinthians 5:18-19
We are chosen by God and dearly loved	Colossians 3:12
We are the salt and light of the earth	Matthew 5:13-16
We are slaves of righteousness	Romans 6:15-23
We are more than conquerors	Romans 8:31-39
We are redeemed and forgiven	Ephesians 1:7
We have the mind of Christ	1 Corinthians 2:16
We are complete in Christ	Colossians 2:10
We are the temple of God	1 Peter 2:4-5
We are saints	1 Corinthians 1:2

In order to spiritually grow, we must become in the natural who God says we are in the supernatural. This requires both belief and application of biblical truth, which together transform our lives. A transformed life is one that progressively manifests the nature and character of Christ, which is the intended fruit of our salvation (Romans 8:29).

The statements above are true statements. They are statements of fact based on Jesus’s complete redemptive work on our behalf. These statements in the Bible are not up for debate, nor is their veracity dependent on how we “feel” about what God says regarding our identity in Christ. It doesn’t matter how much of our fallen nature is still evident. What matters is what God says about His holy nature inside of us because of what Jesus did on the Cross and through His resurrection and ascension. The statements are true of every person born of the Spirit through repentance and saving faith because God is the One who says they are true. We do not make them true by our belief. They ARE true, whether we believe them or not.

There are two things we need to do in response to what the Bible says about our identity in Christ:

1. Accept His word as truth
2. Live out that truth

Our identity in Christ is not about self-esteem, nor does it mean sanctification is not required. Who we are in Christ is about conformity to Christ and becoming who God intended us to be. As we live out our identity, we become the aroma of Christ (2 Corinthians 2:14-16), which He uses to attract others to Himself.
