

2025 Prayer List

1. Susie Walther

Focus, direction, and clarity to communicate the message

Her health and voice would hold

Her family (Bob, Jean, Dina, Ali, Gracie) would remain healthy

NO problems or emergencies that would deter her from ministry to others

2. Renovated Team

Travel, personal health, no emergencies, their ministry before and at the conference:

Prayer: Rita Young (prayer leader) and Amy King (admin assist)

Well Staff: Emily Henderson, Ivy Reeder, Marisa George, Erin Cole (Event Coordinator)

Tech: Jeff George (IT), Rosie Halloway (PowerPoint), Tarah Todd (Binder and PowerPoint)

On Stage: Jennelle Sherman (emcee) and Kristina Wrenn (testimony)

3. Prayer Team Members

Spiritual consecration; abiding in Christ through the Word of God and obedience

Committed to the Renovated prayer effort; remain fervent to the end

Others would join the prayer team throughout the prayer effort

Our prayers for marriages would have a generational impact

4. Small Group Leaders

Listen, pray, encourage, follow-up after the conference:

Adrianna, Amy P., Camile, Christy, Crystal, Cynthia, Debbie, Debi, Glenda, Ivy, Jen, Joni, Kat, Michelle M., Peachie, Sheri, Susan, Tyrita

5. Small Groups

Intimate, transparent, open, honest

Holy Spirit arranged groups

Spiritual and relational breakthrough for women at the tables

Women would be undistracted by any sights or sounds (whether in a private room or not)

6. The Venue

Logistics: time and set up for the event, ballroom lighting, audio/visual, etc.
Hilton team would be blessed/encouraged by the women attending Renovated
Favorability with the food, coffee, bathrooms, ballroom temperature, hotel room check-in, etc.
The weather on the day of the event (NO rainstorms, hurricanes, etc.)
Business sponsors (advertising spots in the conference binder)

7. Conference Atmosphere

Women would feel seen and loved from start to finish
The environment would be friendly and welcoming
The ballroom would be Holy Spirit filled
There would be a spirit of anticipation and expectation

8. Renovated Bible Study

Susie, Eli, and Tarah would have divine wisdom and guidance to write and edit; no one taking offense
Published and ready for distribution before September 13, 2025
Women at the conference would lead others through the Bible study after the conference
Women who have NOT yet attended Renovated would buy the study and lead others through it

9. Women Attending

Diversity of women in attendance: single, single moms, divorced, married, married with kids, widows
Women would be open and ready for the content
Women with an LGBTQIA+ background would be fundamentally affected
Safe travel for women attending (locally and non-local)

10. Spiritual Warfare – Part 1

Strongholds broken: addictions, depression, co-dependency, control, shame, trauma, etc.
Generational family curses broken
Mental Health and physical health (warfare against the mind and body)
Healing and deliverance through truth and revelation

11. Spiritual Warfare – Part 2

Exposure of unforgiveness and bitterness
Conviction over grumbling, complaining, spirit of comparison/competition, apathy, blame-shifting, etc.
Defensiveness against the message or at-the-table talk
Protection for the entire Renovated team, Small Group Leaders, and their families

12. Attitudes

Women will own their own stuff

Self-righteousness

Preconceived ideas/expectations of the content or conference

Her husband's or children's attitude when she returns home after the conference

13. Families of attendees

Husbands: salvation, submission, repentance, desire to be a blessing to his wife

Protection for the caregiver of children while a woman is at the conference

Health and wellness of her family while she's away

Her family would benefit from what she learned and put into practice from the conference

14. Conference Fruit

Women would gather to debrief the conference together

Women would be awakened and activated to new ministry; new discipleship relationships formed

Women would be activated in their marriages; future generations positively affected

Marriages and future marriages would reflect the culture of the Kingdom of God