RENOVATED was nothing short of amazing! We saw the Holy Spirit begin to recalibrate and rebuild women's lives and marriages. There were tears of sorrow and surrender, and I have faith that this is only the beginning of what the Lord is going to do! We have tasted and seen and KNOW that the Lord is GOOD. - Alexis

What an amazing experience! The content helped me learn things that are not always taught in church. I'm 20 years old and single and want to prepare as much as I can before saying, "I do" because marriage is important to God, so it should be prepared for and invested in. - Martina

Through RENOVATED, my wife has motivated me to be more confident as the spiritual leader of my home for the good of my family. Thank you RENOVATED!
– Nathan

RENOVATED was awesome! I walked away with some good nuggets to apply and share with other women and met some amazing women! RENOVATED is such a much-needed message about God's design for us as wives. – Ivy

As a married woman approaching her 50th wedding anniversary, I wasn't convinced that RENOVATED would give me any information I could or would likely use. However, the material spoke to my disappointments, my purpose, my power, my submission, and more. I certainly wish I'd had this available much earlier in my marriage – but it still wasn't too late. This probably should be required the week following the honeymoon and as a refresher course on every anniversary! – Carol

RENOVATED was AMAZING! We had a Muslim woman in our group, two young women without boyfriends, one engaged young woman, and hundreds of years of marriage represented! Lives were changed. Marriages were changed. God's ways are taught, praised, and celebrated at RENOVATED. – Sheri

Through RENOVATED, my wife has abandoned these negative marital emotions and focused her efforts on growing our marriage and creating a true partnership under God's Word. But RENOVATED has also impacted me as a husband. Through my wife's example of a RENOVATED wife – fighting for our marriage, praying over our marriage, persevering when other wives might have given up, God has allowed us to repair and restore the brokenness in ourselves and our marriage. By her loving me as a 100% man, even when I wasn't, it inspired me to be better, do better, and try harder as a husband. We are no longer resentful towards each other, we are RENOVATED. We are no longer disrespectful towards each other, we are RENOVATED. We are no longer broken like we once were, we are RENOVATED. We are still far from perfect, but God has used, and continues to use RENOVATED, to nurture, refresh, and heal our marriage time and time again. – Logan

RENOVATED provided me with a perspective on being a Helpmate that I had never considered before. I have always wanted and loved to help others, but for some reason it never occurred to me that I should be trying to help my husband too! It seems so obvious now and it will hopefully be a real game changer in my marriage.
– Andrea

Women's ministry leaders showed up for RENOVATED ready and eager to learn. We had a diverse group, including single women, and even one who's been married for 52 years! Many said they came solely in hopes of learning something to take back to their congregations, but they quickly realized that their own marriages needed a tune up! God was definitely moving! – Kristina
